

Will execute your orders, be they large or small, with the same skill and care that has always characterized DISPATCH printing.

Are the progressive merchants in every line. Personal of the advertising columns of the DISPATCH can only result in mutual profit between buyer and seller.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

John Smith was in Alliance Tuesday. The dance Saturday night was well attended. Harry Bowker of Alliance was home over Sunday. Harry Arnold of Leetonia was in the village Saturday. Wm. Betz suffered a stroke of paralysis last Thursday. Miss May Murphy of Salem spent Sunday with Miss Lesta Bossert. George Vaughn and son Damon of West Port were over Sunday. Max Moss of Deerfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vignion. Harry Weikert spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weikert. Fred Denner of Youngstown is working on Ivan Davis's house this week. George Chappell and family of Salem called on relatives here Sunday afternoon. Charles Taylor and family of Youngstown spent Sunday with relatives here. P. J. Naylor and family of West Point called on Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dunn Sunday. Russell Stewart and Francis Clark of Salem called on Clarence Baker Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Constant of Beolt were week-end guests of Wm. Kennedy and wife. Wade Hilman and family of Leetonia spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Pary and son Jacob. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Russell are the proud parents of a fine baby boy who came last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Girard and children spent Sunday with Carl Hilderbrand and wife in Salem. Mrs. John Stewart and little daughter of Salem spent Thursday with her parents, John Weikert and wife. Miss Alpha Wilson and James Skillcorn of Youngstown were Washingtonville callers Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown spent the week end with her parents, Frank Stouffer and wife. Mrs. Sarah Fisher and son William of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with Wm. Dalrymple and family. Miss Carrie Woods went to Aurora where she attended the wedding of John Woods and Miss May Russell on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weikert and little son of Leetonia spent Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Weikert. Mrs. Lambert Carrier and Mrs. Chalmers Cape and little daughter spent Sunday with Percy Tetlow and wife in Leetonia. Mrs. Frank Boston went to Akron Friday to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Bowker, who is in the Springfield Lake sanitarium. Mrs. Thomas Dalrymple and son William and daughter Emma and little grandson, Walter Tourdout, visited in East Palestine over Sunday. Misses Lela and Josie Baker and George Chantry of Salem and Miss Bessie Lindsey of Columbiana spent Sunday with Squire Johnson and family. Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple and daughter Mary of this place and Mrs. Sarah Fisher and son William of Youngstown visited Herbert Tetlow and wife in Sebring Sunday afternoon. The Woman's Home Circle met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Simpson last Friday evening. The evening was spent in the usual way, doing family work and sewing. The hostess served an elegant lunch. Orville Moore made his first appearance in his new uniform last Monday morning. At each depot they have to have one of their employees dressed in uniform. Mr. Moore was the one honored in our village. The mayor of this place announced election of Tuesday, November 2, at the usual place of election. The following officers will be chosen: Mayor, clerk, treasurer, marshal and six members of council. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Mitchell and son Robert and Mrs. and Mrs. L. E. Bentley of Beaver Falls, Pa., were Sunday guests of Mrs. J. C. Fitzsimmons and daughter Mary. Misses Lena Howell, Gertrude Mollitt and Edith Lentz of Salem spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Carrier. About twenty Pythian Sisters gave Mrs. Elmer Warner a surprise party at her home last Friday evening in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent playing games, cards and enjoying music. They served a fine lunch after which all returned to their respective homes wishing Mrs. Warner many more happy birthdays. It will be of interest to the readers of the Dispatch to learn of the wedding of J. W. McDonald to Miss Mae Russell, both of Aurora. The ceremony took place Saturday afternoon, Oct. 16, in the Christian church of Aurora. Rev. E. B. Wakefield of Hiram performed the ceremony. The groom is a son of the undersigned. Miss Lucile Barringer of Lisbon played the wedding march. After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride. The bride and groom soon left for a honeymoon trip to Buffalo and other eastern cities. Miss Carrie F. Woods of Washingtonville, J. H. McDonald of West Austintown, Mrs. Mary Bricker of Salem attended the wedding.

John Cole is on the sick list. Clinton Huls of Salem spent last Sunday evening here. Walter Smith and family spent Sunday with Ensign Cook in Greenford. John Smith started to work Wednesday in the boiler works in Columbiana. Miss Alice Platt has returned home here after a few weeks' stay in Salem. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church met at Amanda Bilger's Tuesday evening. Mrs. Emma Schindler of East Palestine spent Tuesday with Charles Vignion and family. Services at the Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening. Every one invited to attend. John Gilbert attended the evening session of the Pythian Sisters' convention in Alliance last week. Frank Heeman, a life-long resident of Salineville, once prosperous, has been taken to the county infirmary near Lisbon. Mrs. Sam Crawford and daughter Orla and Mrs. Jacob Snyder of Lisbon visited Mrs. Susan Rohrer Wednesday afternoon. The K. of P. lodge is making arrangements to have a Halloween dance and social in town hall Saturday evening, Oct. 30. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens on Tuesday returned to their home in Canton, Ill., after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grindle and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bailey. The Junior class of the village high school gave Miss Mary Fitzsimmons, their teacher, a very pleasant surprise at her home. The class and Mrs. C. C. Fitzsimmons served a fine lunch. They all reported having a fine social time. The Washingtonville football team played the Niles team in that city last Sunday afternoon and lost by a score of 21 to 0. Our boys were greatly outwitted by the Nilesites but they put up a game fight. It was estimated that 2000 people saw the game. Many loyal Washingtonville rooters were in the crowd. When the return game is played here results are likely to be different. Relatives here received word of the death of Mrs. Catherine Sommerville, wife of Paul Sommerville, which occurred at the Alliance city hospital Saturday morning, following an illness since Sept. 8 of parturient fever and other complications. Her age was 27 years. Surviving are the husband and baby. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from his home to the court house in Damascus with interment in the Damascus cemetery. Quite a number from there attended the funeral. Judge Moore at Lisbon issued the following order which will mean more pay for men called to serve as jurors in the county courts: "The court, by directed and ordered to pay grand and petit jurors as follows: in addition to the regular fee of two dollars per day and mileage of first appearance, the per diem fee for each day or portion of day necessarily used in travel to enable him to be present at the time ordered by the court, throughout the term, whether that day be Sunday or any other day of the week, or necessarily used in reaching his home after being excused by the court, and should any juror be excused before the end of the week to appear at a later date he shall receive mileage from his home to the court house on his return, whether the day of his return be Sunday or any other day of the week."

MILLVILLE

Oct. 20—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman of Washingtonville were Sunday guests at the home of John Lipplatt. A twelve-pound son came to the home of Jonathan Schaffer of Clarksville Thursday, Oct. 14. Miss Lucy Harris of Poland spent a few days here the past week with friends. Willow Grove Juvenile grange presented a play entitled "The Deacon's Second Wife," a comedy in three acts in Perry grange hall last Friday evening before a large and appreciative audience. Members of Perry grange in this community were in attendance. W. T. Courtney and family of Salem were in the village Sunday. Since the announcement of the Sophomore-Junior interclass football game for Friday, Oct. 22, all other classes in the Salem high school have organized to play the interclass football game and a schedule of games will be arranged some time soon. As in the Junior-Sophomore contest permits from the parents will be required from boys who participate in the games and also the same regulation prohibiting present or past "varsties" men from playing in the games. Mrs. Harry Shinn of Franklin Square has concluded a visit here with friends and returned home. J. L. Hanson of East Liverpool called in the village Saturday. B. F. White of Salem was a business caller here Monday. His Views. "Then you have no castles in America?" "Not yet." "You mean things are tending that way?" "Well, it seems to me sometimes that some people are trying to classify us according to the automobiles we own."—Pittsburg Post. Some Solace. The leaves are sober, The fields are dry; But still October Brings pumpkin pie. —Pittsburg Post. The Dispatch Job Printing Pleases

ISLAND

Oct. 20—A. S. Brubaker and family, I. T. Rohrer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Wisler and Miss Lois Stouffer spent Sunday at Jonas Wisler's and M. M. Ziegler's. Grandfather Stempfl, who lived in Salem, recently moved in with his son Nick where he will be at home for the winter. Wm. Feicht of Confederate Corners was here Monday buying potatoes and apples. Adam Wenger and wife and Eli Guterba and family of Pleasant Valley visited at Samuel and Harvey Good's last Sunday. Earl Klingensmith has accepted a position with the American Express Co. in Youngstown. Fred Brudery and family called on friends near Alliance Sunday. Apple picking is in order at present. Jonas Knopp and family were entertained by Mrs. Barbara Knopp and Mrs. Emma Siller in Leetonia last Sunday. Amos and Alvin Detrow, Eddie Hall and Clarence Lesher are hauling clinkers from the Leetonia furnace for the good road south of Greenford. Wade Carr and lady friend of East Leetown ate their Sunday dinner at the home of his uncle, David S. Klingensmith. H. E. Calvin and family of Clarksville motored through here Sunday going to Sharpsville. Quite a number of our young people attended Sunday services at the Friends' church in Middletown. S. G. McClun and family drove to Sharon and spent Sunday at C. A. McClun's. Harry Showalter and wife called on her mother, Mrs. Salome Weaver, Sunday. Israel and Amos Wenger and sisters Lena and Stella spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ziegler. Henry Lehman and H. E. Keeler motored to Youngstown Monday and closed a business deal. Cletus, Orland and Rolland Ro-e, Leopold, Joseph and Nick Golograns were pleasantly entertained by Joseph Wenger Sunday. Noah Weaver and family left Saturday for Chambersburg, Pa. to be with friends for several weeks. Rev. and Mrs. Allen Rickett visited at Alvin Detrow's Sunday. H. H. Calvin had a yield of 410 bushels of potatoes from four acres and sold them to Wm. Feicht for 70c a bushel. A. S. Brubaker had business in Canfield Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Weaver contemplated making a trip to Indiana some time soon. Mrs. S. G. McClun, Mrs. Nellie Reichard, Mrs. R. Martin and Mrs. A. W. Detrow were shopping in Youngstown Monday. The Cox market route No. 14 through Fairfield is rapidly being completed by the Jones Construction Co. of Marion, O. Noah Bixler has the job of concreting the basement of John Wisler's barn. Emmet Coblentz of Columbiana called on A. S. Brubaker Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Good attended the grange fair in Greenford Saturday evening. Dr. Conrad of Leetonia recently made several professional calls here. Don't forget the school fair to be held in district No. 8, Oakdale, school house Friday evening, Oct. 22. Let us have a large display and a good attendance. Come and hear the good speakers. S. G. McClun had business in Youngstown Monday. Jonas and Mary Knopp went to market in Youngstown Tuesday morning with a load of choice fruit. D. R. Lehman is recovering from much suffering with boils and carbuncles. He feels grateful to the many friends who called on him while so sorely afflicted. The Germantown school is progressing very nicely under the two teacher system, the 60 pupils being taken care of by Misses Gray and Bare in one room. Some chestnuts, but hickorynuts are scarce in this neck of the woods. John Culp sold his Harold farm consisting of 96 acres to Emanuel Snoop of Harrisburg, Va. Mr. Culp reserved the timber and gives possession immediately. E. P. Hall and wife were in Middletown Monday. Harvey Rapp is installing an up-to-date air pressure water system in Henry Lehman's new house and other buildings. John Stouffer's house near Columbiana on Monday afternoon caught fire, it is supposed from a defective flue, and burned to the ground together with nearly all its contents. Rev. and Mrs. John Kuper, John C. Nolt and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Musser of Lancaster County, Pa. are making a short visit here. Farmers are hustling fall work. Bonita Crumbacher, who won first in competition with 53 babies at the Salem home-coming, is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Yoder. John Forney of Maryland, who spent several of his younger years in this locality, is visiting his brother Harvey a few days and expects to spend the winter in a Michigan sanitarium to be treated for tuberculosis. Nicholas Paves, who spent several weeks in Toledo and Cleveland, has taken up his former position with Martha and Mary Wisler. Buyers are paying from 60 to 70c a bushel for potatoes and 65 to 80c a bushel for winter apples. Some farmers are still trying to make hay with poor weather for the work. Hay has surely been an abundant crop this season. Let Her Alone. "I wish my wife understood baseball so that she could talk to us intelligently on the subject. I propose to keep after her until she learns." "I think you are on the wrong track, my boy. She doesn't expect you to understand millinery."—Pittsburg Post. Chlie and the United States practically produce all the boxes used. Twelve thousand children are arrested annually in New York.

WHEN THE WIND'S IN THE NORTH

(Copyright)

SHADY HOLLOW

Oct. 20—Farmers pretty well along with their fall work, but still have some potatoes to dig and apples to pick. R. E. Bieber will build a brick silo this fall and put his corn crop in it. Mr. and Mrs. Noah Cramer of Hickory visited at John VanFossan's Sunday. C. L. Meeker and H. C. Heintzelman with their families attended Huxsaw's sale in Canfield Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Williams visited at Irvin Ruhman's in Westwood Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sweet of Ash-tabula and Mrs. Amanda Price of Orangeville were over Sunday visitors at H. C. Heintzelman's. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rothgeb were in Lisbon Sunday. Robert Williams and John Heintzelman were in Poland Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bieber and little daughter visited Mrs. Bieber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Rummell, in New Springfield last Sunday. Elsie and Helen Meeker visited their aunt, Mrs. John Morris, in New Buffalo, Sunday afternoon. Sunday callers at H. C. Heintzelman's were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meyers of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zimmerman, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Zimmerman, Mrs. J. S. Zimmerman and son Lewis, Master John Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. John Fries of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crouse and son Hollis, wife and son, Mrs. McGill and three children. Rudolph Basinger and daughter Emma and Ed. Lehman and family of East Leetown. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Meeker, accompanied by Mrs. Meeker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rothgeb, of New Egypt visited at Wm. Wormley's in Youngstown Sunday. Mrs. Addie Mishler and son Harold of Mogadore were over Sunday visitors of Mrs. Carrie Wertz. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dietrich and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dietrich visited in North Lima Sunday afternoon. There will be no services in Paradise Reformed church next Sunday as Rev. I. N. Burger is taking his vacation. Mrs. Piper and granddaughter, Miss Mull, of Mansfield called on Mrs. Carrie Wertz Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis and daughter of Youngstown and Neva Fishel of Canfield called at G. L. Minard's Sunday afternoon. O. H. Paulin has finished filling silos and is threshing again. Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman, with Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. Price, visited Mrs. C. L. Beard, Monday. John Avery is piping the gas from his well south as far as C. A. Messerly's place. C. L. Meeker and family, Howard Lynn, Howard Kyle and John Heintzelman attended the school fair at the Beard school house Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis and daughter of Youngstown and Neva Fishel of Canfield called at G. L. Minard's Sunday afternoon. A. P. Lloyd had business in Canfield Monday. Al Mesimer has been hauling hay from A. P. Lloyd's.

MILTON

Oct. 20—The Eckis-Henderson sale was well attended, many from Youngstown, Canfield and Palmyra being present. A full attendance of members of Milton grange is requested for Wednesday evening, Oct. 27, to arrange for dedication. On Saturday evening of this week a temperance meeting will be held in the hall. Good speakers will be present. Byron Williamson and family will remove Thursday to Mineral Ridge. Neighbors and friends, numbering about 50, gathered at their home Monday night to tender a farewell reception. A good time was had. Miss Helen Parshall was in Youngstown Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Martie Pifer of Youngstown, who has been ill, is so far recovered as to be able to visit friends in the country. Mrs. Nye of Ellwood, Pa., is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Howard Wright. Mr. and Mrs. Milt Florence spent Sunday in Palmyra. Hester Craig was home from Alliance the last of the week. Walter Parshall has gone to Canton to work. Mrs. Edith Smith of Ravenna spent a couple of days here with her parents and sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Liby of Warren were at Alfred Detcho's Sunday. Jean Fenton, son of the late Herman Fenton, had the misfortune to fall from a pony last Friday evening, breaking an arm at the elbow. It is thought necessary to have an X-ray taken to determine the extent of the injury. Glen Creed's new barn is now towing about its foundation, having been raised last Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Seneca Rose, assisted Mother Creed in dispensing in a most generous manner all the good things to eat that mortal man could desire. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rose entertained Theodore Rankenberger and Miss Theo last Sunday. Don't forget the temperance cause and vote dry. The buckwheat crop in this township is very large, an unusually large acreage having been harvested this year. And it is a profitable crop, too. Great crowds visit the Milton dam every pleasant Sunday.

WILLOW GROVE

Oct. 20—Misses Sylvia and Maud Burgett and Isabelle Seeley spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Abe Adler in Youngstown. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Burgett spent Sunday at L. E. Minck's in West Austintown. Mrs. B. Carlisle spent a few days last week with relatives in Lisbon. Miss Isabelle Seeley spent Saturday night and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Abe Adler, in Youngstown. William Follweller and family moved to Coalburg last week and Roy McCartney and family moved into the house vacated by them. Guests at Henry Burgett's Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riley and daughter Lois of Hickory, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Crum. Harry Follweller of Perkins Corners spent Sunday with relatives here. Mrs. Nora Burgett was a Tuesday caller at Frank Hamman's in Perkins Corners. Miss Madeline Hulsebos of Montague, Mich., spent last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hulsebos. Misses Maude Burgett, Madeline Hulsebos and John Burgett spent Sunday at the home of William Davis near Boardman. William Davis and lady friend and Dale Davis of near Boardman were Sunday evening callers here. Subscribe for the Dispatch.

EAST LEWISTOWN

Oct. 20—J. R. Sauerwein attended Huxsaw's sale in Canfield Saturday. I. R. Guy and family of East Palestine called on Mrs. Barbara Blosser last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Blosser and daughter Thelma spent Sunday afternoon at Allen Culp's. Martin Coy is recovering from a fall in which he was painfully injured. Chas. Engler and Jack Wilderson attended a show in Calla one night last week. Patrolman Painter is assisting H. C. Crumbaker digging potatoes. Henry Painter and family spent Sunday afternoon at Dell Landgraver's. Comley Carr visited Irvin Cole Sunday afternoon. H. L. Burns and family motored to West Middlesex, Pa., and spent Sunday with relatives. S. G. McClun called on Grandma Burns last Sunday. Prof. Call will give entertainments the coming week in Wilderson's hall. William Baker will move to Elkton and work at blacksmithing. There will be a temperance meeting at the Union church Friday night. Attend. Jonathan Harter and Irvin Cole are helping Geo. Harten pick apples. Delightful fall weather and farmers in this neighborhood are making the most of it.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Oct. 20—Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Lewis Harroff last Thursday. Rev. Hensel officiated. Interment was made in the Smith's Corners cemetery. The deceased was 82 years old and was born and always lived in this township. One daughter, Mrs. Opera Crum of this township, and one son, William, who resides on the home farm, survive him. Miss Annie Wilcock of Youngstown has concluded a visit with Mrs. William J. Knight. L. H. Young presented W. Ohl with an apple of the Wolfe River variety grown in his orchard, which when picked weighed one pound and 8 ounces. Can any of the Dispatch readers equal that? Mrs. William and Mrs. Burt Knight recently visited Mrs. Ambrose Meahan at Ohio's crossing. Grant Crum is employed by the L. H. Young Contracting Co. doing grading on the road in Green township where the company has a contract.

BERLIN CENTER

Oct. 20—Elizabeth Hughes W. C. T. U. held an interesting meeting last Friday night at the home of Mrs. Jerry Wisdorff. At the business session it was decided to ascertain the position of the men on the temperance question who are candidates for membership of the board of education, and it was decided to meet at the hotel between 2 and 2:30 p. m. on election day and march in body to the polls and vote for school directors. The next meeting of the organization will be held at the home of Mrs. L. C. Mock Saturday, Oct. 30. Much interest centered in the gold medal contest held last week in the M. E. Church. There were six contestants and all did well. Three of them ranged so close that there was only a fraction between them. The medal was awarded to Miss Mary Taylor whose oration subject was "Prohibition and Personal Liberty." A pumpkin pie social in charge of the ladies will be held Saturday evening, Oct. 23, and the public is cordially invited. There will be an address at the church after the supper. There will be a meeting of the Epworth League next Sunday evening in the M. E. Church followed by preaching by Rev. Mr. Nichols. Mrs. W. T. Carson of Alliance and her mother, Mrs. DeEtte Hawkins, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Larue Hawkins. A. L. Whitehouse of Columbus will have charge of the grammar department of the centralized school. Larue Hawkins motored to Pittsburgh last Sunday afternoon, taking his daughter Carol back to school. Quite a number from here went to Alliance the middle of last week in search of bargains. Berlin, however, is a good place to trade. Jack Smith, an enterprising citizen, purchased a number of trees of W. T. Hawkins. Mart Hoover, who assisted in putting the heater in the new school building, is now employed in an Alliance shop. Three young friends of Fred Woolf motored here from Alliance last Sunday to see the new school building which will be very fine when entirely completed. Mrs. W. F. Carson of Alliance spent Sunday with Mrs. Solomon Helsler. M. A. Hawn has been helping Mrs. Bradshaw prepare for her sale. Mrs. Emma Duestman is slowly recovering from her illness. The first number of our lecture course will be given on the last Saturday evening of this month. Temperance workers were here from Sebring this evening and were given a royal welcome by our people who will give John Burleycorn a black eye on election day. Mrs. Ida Duestman and daughter of Ravenna are visiting Mrs. Mary Bradshaw. Work is progressing nicely on the good roads east of the village.

EAST CANFIELD STREET

Oct. 20—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kyle gave a birthday surprise party Saturday evening in honor of two of their children, Mary and Carl. The guests numbered about thirty. The evening was spent with numerous games and at a late hour the guests partook of a delicious luncheon served by Mrs. Kyle assisted by Miss Mabel Boyer. When the evening was far spent the guests departed for their respective homes wishing Mary and Carl many more happy birthdays. Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Stille of Paradise spent Sunday with Floyd Hushour and family. Mrs. Lois Edsall and daughter, Mrs. E. P. Ressler, were in Salem Wednesday. After spending several days here Mr. and Mrs. John Appleciser returned home to Oakfield Friday. L. H. Chappellear of Chicago had business on this street recently. George Hushour of Youngstown spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Lois Hushour. Mr. and Mrs. Curt Fishel of Marquis were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kyle. Quite a number from here attended the funeral of James Shingledecker at the county infirmary last week. Daniel and Allen Kohler of Marquis are making repairs at the Edsall coal mine. Mr. Kyle spent Sunday with friends in Pleasanton. Leroy Toot did mason work for Arthur Kyle Friday and Saturday. Slag is being hauled from Canfield to build the road on this street. Wm. Hunter and son Edwin had business in Marquis Tuesday. Jack and Ethel will travel at several places on the street this week. A few from here attended the sale of Albert Huxsaw in Canfield Saturday.

PATMOS

Oct. 20—The pupils and teacher of our school will hold a Halloween masquerade and pie social Friday evening, Oct. 29. Everybody cordially invited. Ladies, please bring pies. Ernest Riley and Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Kegg attended the funeral of Joseph Smith in Salem, Sunday. Mrs. Elizabeth Gunder spent last week with her son-in-law, Joseph Henry, in North Benton. Don't forget Rally Day at the Bunker Hill church, Sunday, Oct. 24. Everybody welcome. The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. W. L. Middleton last Wednesday with six in attendance. Patmos School Report—The following pupils were perfect in attendance during the month ending Oct. 15: Lucy Owens, Thelma Owens, Kenneth Owens, Kathryn Oesch, Robert Oesch, Mildred Riley, Lucille Stratton, Edith Baird, Thomas Frantz, Charles Ware, Frank Ware, Melburn Waltham, Herman Stratton and Henry Baird. Those absent one day or less were Charlotte Kegg, Myron Kegg, Russell Waltham, John King, Frank King, Wilbur Baird, Sadie Taylor, Edna Riley and Gladys Dean. Total enrollment, 55. James H. Duestman, teacher. Read the Dispatch Classified Columns

NEW BUFFALO

Oct. 20—The children of Mrs. Mary Ann Hendricks surprised her Sunday by coming to see her, bringing their families and well-filled baskets ready to serve a birthday dinner. About 30 were present and the occasion was a most pleasurable one. Bert Mull, his daughter and two sons of Mansfield came to Henry Heiss's Saturday night and spent Sunday with Mrs. Elizabeth Wertz and William Geis. They returned home Sunday night. Miss Mull is long distance operator in the Mansfield telephone exchange. Conrad Hess of Petersburg spent several days here last week. Mrs. Margaret Piper (nee Hess) of Mansfield is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman returned home to Cleveland last Friday. Christ Butts returned to Hubbard last Saturday. Adolph Meeker and wife spent Sunday and Monday at Henry Cole's, north of Lordestown. Edwin Mentzer of North Lima called on William Geis last Saturday evening. Charley Fox, constable of North Lima, called here Monday. Elsie and Helen Meeker spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. John Morris. John Cuning, while cranking his auto Monday morning had several bones in his right wrist knocked out of place. Russell Morris started to school Monday after being absent two weeks on account of his eye. The Woman's Missionary Society of the Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 27. Dare to be a Daniel, standing by a purpose true. It's when you do wrong, and are told of it, that the truth hurts, unless you are a wise man.

CORNERSBURG

Oct. 20—John Follweller has been appointed foreman of the experiment farm south of Canfield. Mordecai Matteson of the city, who was a boarder in the home of John Fink, drowned himself in Mill Creek last week. The funeral was held Wednesday from the home of his son in Youngstown. Thomas Wanamaker and wife and Mrs. Ibbie Patnamaker spent a couple of days last week in the home of Floyd Blackburn near North Jackson. Comfort Osborne of Boardman spent Friday at G. W. Stock's. Alexander Scheetz of the city purchased two acres of land of August Schmitt on the north side and has erected a garage and began the erection of a dwelling. Roy McCartney has moved to the William Follweller property on west street. William Ryder spent last week in the home of his brother Carl of the city. L. D. Stock of the city was a Sunday caller. Mrs. Ethel Turner and daughter Catherine and sons Kenneth and Lawrence of Newark are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis. C. W. Ryder and D. B. Wonseller served on the registration board in the Ninth ward Friday and Saturday. Miss Julia Shields of the city spent Wednesday in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Shields. William Follweller has moved to his recently purchased property near Coalburg. Workmen finished putting up the wires for the electric lights which were placed in position last week as far as the city limits. With a paved street and electric lights citizens of the burg feel quite civilized. Mrs. G. W. Stock and Mrs. R. T. Osborne spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. Lois Osborne in Boardman. Albert Nelson, wife and son Wayne of the city were Sunday guests at Earl Corli's.

AUSTINTOWN

Oct. 20—The Austintown schools will hold a school fair in the church here Thursday evening, Oct. 28 and the public is cordially invited to attend. There will be displays of the agricultural products of the township and the handwork of the pupils. One or two short addresses will be given by prominent speakers. Work is progressing nicely on the new school building. The brick road west from here is a great automobile speedway. School Report—The following pupils were perfect in attendance during the first month of school: Geraldine Houk, Ethel Gipp, Mildred Crum, Elma Reel, Theresa DeHoff, Lauretta Smith, Mildred Kate, Helen Dunlap, Mary Burgett, Florence Leachner, Anna Bell Elliott, Alice Buchwalter, Alda Wilcox, Mahlan Creed, Warren and Randall Brickley, Joseph Elliott, Kenneth and Paul Lloyd, Elmer Elliott, Randall Krocke, Neale Leenhart, Donald Whistler, Luther Houk, Philip Frosser, John Baker, Mike Vianhich, Donald Wilcox, Daniel Stambaugh, Ralph Smith. Enrollment, 46. Tree-see Yaeger, teacher. Subscribe for the Dispatch.

KNAUFVILLE

Oct. 20—Nicholas Knauf and family spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Ina Esterly of New Middletown. W. W. Hendricks and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lower spent Sunday afternoon with relatives in Warren. Miss Lida Lenhart is working at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mayer. The condition of Mrs. Mayer remains unchanged. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knauf and daughter Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knauf and daughter Nellie motored to Greenville, Pa., Sunday and spent the day with relatives. Several from here attended the lecture at Ellsworth Tuesday evening. Don't forget the pie social to be held in the school house here Friday evening, Oct. 23. The pie will be sold by shadow. All who please, please bring pies. There will be other amusements also. Everybody invited.